

The present document sets in perspective the various contributions to the development of the Handbook of the History of the Philosophy of Language. It is divided into three parts: (i) the first part contains a general introduction to the history of the philosophy of language; (ii) the second part contains a survey of the main contributions to the history of the philosophy of language; (iii) the third part contains a survey of the main contributions to the history of the philosophy of language.

[illegible]